However, Doyle would not be denied and he again led at 5—3, only needing two points to run out the match. But here Williams showed one of the streaks of brilliancy for which he is famous, running the set to 6 all and finally breaking through Doyle's serve and winning at 8—6.

CLEVELAND, April 19.—Triples by Vitt and Veach allowed Detroit to overcome Cleveland's early lead and golfers are discussing nothing but the disqualification of Francis Ouimet, and his host of friends seem to be almost unanimous in the opinion that he has been unfairly treated by the United States Golf Association. HARPER WINS GAME

BREAK UP AN OLD HOODOO

First Victory in Thirteen Games Played in Beantown Since Last Season.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

BOSTON, April 19.- It was because of Harry Harper's effectiveness that the Bostons yesterday lost their game -the first in thirteen that the Griffmen have played here since the first of last season. The hoodoo was broken because the world champions could not solve the southpaw delivery of the boy from Hackensack. Had be received his just dues in the matter of support he would have been hit safely but three times and would not have yielded a run. It happened that a couple of errors paved the way for the two runs of the Red Sox after a fered in the eighth; but there was no other time that Harper was not in complete command of the situation.

complete command of the situation.

The changed line-up indicates that Manager Griffith has hit upon the right combination at last. The star of the day was Moeller, who dealt only in the figure "2." He was up twice, scored two runs, made two hits, stole two bases and walked twice. He also played a good game in the field, though he was not particularly busy in that department.

Moeller started the game by singling to right. Foster struck out, but Moeller went to second on a wild pitch, and then stole third. Milan was out on an infield play, on which Moeller scored, and Judge was out at first on a sharp drive to the pitcher.

McBride Hits Timely.

Rondeau came along with a cleancut single in the second, and Morgan sacrificed him to second. Williams was out on an infield play, and then George McBride came through with a clean single to left, which sent Ronleau home with the second run.

Janvrin in the fourth, but he struck out Lewis and Shorten and took care of Gardner's tap. It was in the eighth that the Red Sox scored. Agnew got a life when McBride fumbled his groundes Dovle, Washington, 4-6, 8-6, 6-3.

BOSTON IS WITH OUIMET.

Four Clubs Ask Him to Play in Their

G. A.

It transpires that when the news that Ouimet had been officially notified of his disqualification became public property for some time a canvass of the opinions of the members of the New England golf clubs has been going on, and that at least four clubs have asked him to compete in their tournaments this season, irrespective of his standing in the eyes of the officials of the United States Golf Association. Two clubs in Rhode Island and two more in Massachusetts are known to have asked Ouimet to play in their tournaments, even though barred from to nave asked Ouimet to play in their tournaments, even though barred from the amateur ranks by the U.S. G. Ouimet's answer to all of these invitations has been the same. He has vitations has been the same. He has declined to consider playing in any competition in which his presence might embarrass either the club holding the competition or any of his fel-low-competitors. Whether in view of this attitude the clubs will press their invitations and insist that he compete invitations and insist that he compete remains to be seen.

One of the most thoroughly disgusted persons in Boston is Arthur G. Lockwood, for he expected that he would escape the displeasure of the U. S. G. A. When the new rule was passed he gave up part of his business, and since has been devoting almost all of his time to course exchitecture. and since has been devoting almost all of his time to course architecture, which is permitted by the U.
